

FIERCE FLAMES THREATEN TO DESTROY JEFFERSON

Fire Started in a Chair Factory in the Southern Part of the Town and Was Reaching Out to Sweep Over the Little City.

CALL FOR HELP TO NEAR-BY TOWNS

The Loss Will Reach About $100,000—Chair Factory, Episcopal Church and Residences Burned—Janesville Sends an Engine—Intense Excitement.

Jefferson, Wis., September 5, 2 p. m.—(Special)—At noon this town was startled by the cry of fire. Instantly aware that there was danger in the air the citizens turned out en masse to fight the flames. Such a scene of excitement was never seen in Jefferson.

The people made certain that the town would be entirely destroyed and began moving their goods and effects to places of safety. The confusion and excitement was terrible.

The fire started in the chair factory in the southern part of the city and the fury of the flames was extraordinary. They grew and spread with alarming rapidity. A strong wind was blowing directly towards the city and the fierce flames mowed down everything in their path. The destruction of the town seemed certain. The local fire department was hurried out and hundreds with buckets and hose tried to stem the advancing flames. It was soon discovered that the appliances on hand would not stop the progress of the fire and the authorities hastily sent out fire alarms to Fort Atkinson, Watertown, Whitewater and Janesville for engines to help fight the fire.

About one o'clock the Fort Atkinson fire department was on the ground fighting the fire. Janesville, Watertown and Whitewater firemen were reported on the road and were anxiously awaited.

The fire at 2:30 o'clock was rapidly eating its way north into the town. The small residences between the factory and the town fell before the scorching flames like ripe grain before the reaper.

It is almost certain to reach the business section of the city and if it does it will be swept clean.

Every effort is being made to stop the mad career of the flames and nothing will save the town except the timely arrival of the firemen from neighboring towns.

3 p. m.—The fire is now under control. It started in the Wisconsin Chair company's plant which is entirely consumed with a loss of over $20,000.

It made a fierce blaze and scattered flying shingles and burning debris all over the city.

The Episcopal church caught fire and is a total wreck. Loss $15,000.

The elegant residence of Mayor Henry was partially destroyed as was also the residence of O. J. Kierchenberger. Four or five homes were slightly damaged.

The city hall was also partially burned down.

Mayor Henry estimates the total loss at between $90,000 and $100,000.

Assistance was on hand from Fort Atkinson, Watertown and Johnson's Creek. The Janesville department made the run up here, 29 miles in 32 minutes including a stop for orders at Fort Atkinson of 3 1/2 minutes.

There was a strong wind blowing across the city and the fire brands were carried in every direction starting numerous blazes. The volunteer firemen made a hard fight to save the yards and surrounding factories.

Shortly before one o'clock a telephone message was received by Chief Engineer Spencer from Jefferson, Wis., stating that a terrible fire was raging and had gotten beyond all control. They asked the city to send an engine and hose wagon to their assistance. An alarm was turned in calling the members of the department to the engine house.

The Steamer Water Witch was at once made ready and taken to the Northwestern freight house, where a flat car was in readiness to receive it. The No. 3 hose cart was also sent to the station and placed on the flat car with the engine.

The special was made up of an engine, a flat car and a caboose in charge of Conductor Jesse McCaffery. There was some delay at the passenger station getting orders for the special on account of the wires being down at Jefferson and the operator not being able to get the train dispatcher at Oshkosh. Finally about 1:40 they got orders and left on what promised to be a record breaking run.

Those who made the trip from here were Chief Engineer Spencer, Asst. Chief Osgood, Thomas Abbott, James McGinley, Con. Murphy, Gus Baerman, George McKee, R. J. Whiton, Ed. Putnam, I. F. Wortendyke, Henry Kline, E. H. Marriott and others.

FORTNIGHT'S GRACE IS GIVEN TURKEY

France Will Enforce Her Demands on Turkey Just as Soon as the Czar Leaves.

Paris, September 5.—A fortnight's grace until after the czar's visit has been given the sultan for fulfillment of his promises to the French ambassador to Turkey. In the meanwhile three warships are being quietly prepared at Toulon for emergency. It is reported that the sultan intends to make Munir Bey, the Turkish ambassador to France, a scapegoat of the whole affair, which he is now eager to settle before the other powers join with France in a demand for general Turkish reforms.

Getsey-Eldredge Wedding

The marriage of George Getsey and Alice Eldredge, both of Afton, was solemnized last evening at the home of the bride by the Rev. Howland Hanson, of Beloit. The home of the bride where the ceremony took place was handsomely decorated, yellow and green being the predominating colors.

Miss Ethel Morris of Beloit played the bridal march as the young couple entered the room. Miss Ethel Getsey a sister of the groom and Hylah Eldredge the sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaids and Fred Eldredge and Melvin Atwood were best men. The ceremony was attended by about 100 relatives and friends of the contracting parties.

Mrs. Minnie Diehl and daughter were called to Watertown yesterday by the death of Mrs. Diehl's father.

POISONED BY BOILED CORN

Made Ill by Eating Vegetable Which Grew Near Poison Ivy

Marinette, Wis., September 5.—A crew of forty men working on a sawmill near Fannus, Mich., were all poisoned in a peculiar manner yesterday, and two of them are not expected to recover. They boiled corn with the husks on. The corn had been planted in a place where there was a great deal of poison ivy.

Ordered to Kill the Flies.

Cumberland, Md., Sept. 5.—At Lonaconing, this county, a mining town of 7,000 people, the city board of health, Dr. J. D. Bullock president, has posted notices calling on housekeepers to exterminate flies. It is claimed the insects spread germs of disease. To aid in lessening the number of flies the council has passed an ordinance forbidding the inhabitants longer to keep pig sties. Swine and cattle must no longer run about the streets.

GENEVA FRANCHISE SECURED BY HURD

Janesville Man is Given Authority to Build and Maintain an Electric Line in That City.

At Geneva City on Tuesday evening a franchise to construct and maintain an electric railroad was granted to George J. Hurd of this city. The franchise is practically the same as the one granted H. H. Clough in this city for the Beloit, Delavan Lake and Janesville electric road. The cities of Delavan and Elkhorn have not yet granted a franchise to the company but will probably do so at their next meeting.

Thomas S. Nolan of this city represented Mr. Hurd at Geneva City, and also represents him at Delavan and Elkhorn. He thinks that now that Geneva has granted his road a franchise there will be no trouble in getting the franchises from the other towns along the proposed route.

The statement has been made and was quite generally circulated about the country that Hurd would not get a franchise at Geneva because the Chicago & Northwestern owned and controlled Geneva City and they were opposed to electric lines.

The aldermen at Geneva had seen this statement and were somewhat put out by it. They said in the first place they had never said a word against the granting of a franchise to electric roads.

Mr. Clough withdrew his application for a franchise at Delavan and Elkhorn until he finds out what kind of a franchise those cities are willing to grant him. He is not at all satisfied with the Beloit franchise, and does not propose to be tied up by these two towns like he was by Beloit. He thinks if a city does not care enough about the road to give it a reasonable franchise, there are plenty of other cities that do, and when it would be just as well to run a line.

The work on the Beloit, Delavan, Lake & Janesville line is being rushed along by the Hayes Brothers company. They now have ten different gangs of men working along the line where the heavy hills and cuts occur. Mr. R. W. Hill is busily employed in getting deeds for the land on which they hold options and expects to close up the work in a short time.

Panama, September 5.—Advice from Salvador report the presidential mansion and artillery barracks destroyed by fire on Tuesday night. An explosion in the barracks started the blaze.

ROCK COUNTY HORSES AT STATE FAIR; A RECORD-BREAKING EXHIBITION

McLay Brothers, Alex. Galbraith and E. Stericker Will Have Stock on Grounds—Fair Opens Monday.

Milwaukee, September 5.—When the state fair opens next Monday morning every available spot will be occupied and the exhibits will be the finest and most complete ever seen at an exhibition of similar nature in the west. The clerical force in charge of Secretary John M. True were kept busy all day yesterday attending to the entries and the register books are filling up rapidly. Every county in the state will have something on exhibition.

Car after car of live stock arrived this morning and additional sheds will have to be built to take care of the exhibit. In the poultry and pigeon departments alone there have been, up to date over 600 entries.

A number of the race entries will be made public tomorrow. Among the leading and extensive entries of horses so far are the following:

Percherons—H. A. Briggs, Elkhorn, Wis.; Pabst Stock Farm, Milwaukee; Clydesdales—McLay Brothers and Alexander Galbraith, Janesville; Coach horses—E. Stericker, Janesville; Pabst Stock Farm, Milwaukee; R. R. Ives, Delavan, Wis. Roadsters—George Shellas, Waukesha; W. J. Breese, Waukesha; George Brew, Milwaukee; J. Anslimen, Pewaukee, Wis.; F. Von Cotzhausen, Milwaukee; J. R. Peck & Son, Winchester, Ill.

There are about 600 entries of swine and 500 of sheep.

PROSPERITY IN THE WHOLE LAND

The Theme of McKinley's Speech at Buffalo This Morning.

50,000 HEARD HIM

Warm Reception Given to Head of the Nation at the Pan-American.

PLEASED WITH EXPO.

Buffalo, September 5.—President McKinley this morning delivered an address to an audience of over 50,000 people on the Esplanade. He was greeted with the wildest enthusiasm both before and after his speech. His remarks were frequently applauded.

Time Keepers of Progress

After the cheering had subsided he began his speech by expressing his satisfaction in the meeting and giving a welcome to the foreign representatives present. Continuing he said: "These expositions are the time keepers of progress; they record the world's advancement, they stimulate energy, enterprise and intellect of the people and quicken human genius. The country," he said, "is in a state of unexampled prosperity and by sensible trade arrangements which will not interrupt our home production we shall extend the outlets for our increasing surplus."

Buffalo, N. Y., September 5.—President McKinley, in whose honor today has been set aside on the Pan-American exposition calendar, entered Buffalo last night through the portals of the Rainbow City.

The screeching of whistles and the booming of guns greeted the president's train as it passed along the lake and river fronts over the Belt line tracks to the grounds. As the train flashed past the front a salute of twenty-one guns was fired from Fort Porter.

An immense crowd had assembled at the railroad terminus at the exposition grounds to await the arrival of the president. From the electric tower down the west side of the court of fountains as far as the triumphal bridge people were packed so closely together that there was scarcely room to move.

A few minutes later President McKinley, with Mrs. McKinley leaning on his arm, and surrounded by the reception committee, emerged from the entrance to the terminal station. A great cheer went up from the thousands who caught a glimpse of the party. President McKinley with Mrs. McKinley and John C. Milburn president of the exposition company, entered the first carriage which was drawn by four handsome bays. Cheer after cheer went up from the vast throng. The president acknowledged the salutations of the crowd by bowing and raising his hat. Mrs. McKinley, who looked remarkably well after the tiresome journey, also smiled.

The carriages paused for a moment on the triumphal bridge to give the members of the party a moment to take in the beauties of the grounds. They were then driven rapidly out of the Lincoln parkway entrance, up the parkway to Delaware avenue, and thence to the home of Mr. Milburn, whose guest President and

RED HOT SHOT BY GROSVENOR

The Ohio Congressman Riddles the Primary Election System.

IT IS CORRUPTING

Sharp Arraignment of the Law La Follette Proposes to Foist on Wisconsin.

IT CREATES FACTIONS

Congressman H. Grosvenor of the Eleventh Ohio district, in response to a letter of inquiry from the Milwaukee Sentinel, makes the following arraignment of the primary election system:

Athens, Ohio, Sept. 2, 1901.

To the Editor of the Sentinel:

My Dear Sir—I received your letter of July 29 on my return from a little trip to Europe. In that letter you asked me to state some facts and opinions in regard to the subject of the primary elections for office. I have no knowledge of what the election is in Wisconsin or what the controversy is about. Therefore, I shall write unbiassed by anybody's influence or opinion. I have strong opinions on this subject, and I am entirely willing that others shall know what they are, and am, furthermore, willing that the correctness of my views may be thoroughly tested by disinterested individuals.

Experiments in Ohio

We have had in Ohio for a good many years, experiments going on in this matter of primary elections. There are eighty-eight counties in Ohio, and I think the first election of this character was held in Warren county. It must have been twenty years ago although I do not bind myself to exact dates. From that time to this the friends of this system have endeavored, in every possible way to introduce it into as many of the counties of the state as possible, and of the eighty-eight counties I do not think that up to this time twenty have experimented with this matter, and I do not believe that candid thinking men in any one of the counties that have experimented believe that it is wise and judicious as a system.

A Most Corrupt System

It was introduced into this county some years ago. About twelve, I think, it was brought about by a popular vote being taken, and was, of course, voted upon without any experimental knowledge in the system itself among the masses of our people, and the attraction for a popular vote was so great that regardless of any knowledge of its effect we rushed into it. The great difficulty connected with it is that you cannot get rid of it very well, and I will tell you why. IT IS THE MOST CORRUPTING AND CORRUPT SYSTEM OF POLITICS EVER INVENTED BY THE WIT OF MAN. The field for operation of corruptionists is largely enhanced.

It Creates Faction

I believe that my statement is within bounds when I say that in this county more money has been paid at a single primary election to bring about the nomination of, say, four county officers than the aggregate fees and salaries of those officers for a year at least would amount to. This is a small county polling only some 7,000 or 8,000 votes in an ordinary election, and I think no man will charge exaggeration if I should say that it has cost $10,000 to run one of these primary elections here.

First a most noticeable effect is

FUNCTION FOR A USELESS ORGAN

Denver Doctor Declares He Has Discovered a Use for Vermiform Appendix.

Denver, Colorado, Sept. 5.—Dr. E. P. Hershey of this city, at the meeting of the Rocky Mountain Interstate Medical association this morning, asserted that he had found a function for the vermiform appendix. He claims that it is a secretory organ, the function of which is the lubrication of the caecum, or the beginning of the large intestine. The arguments of the doctor advanced in the support of his theory were interesting, but the other doctors claimed that they were not conclusive.

The doctor's paper drew from the delegates a strong protest. Dr. Wright of Salt Lake City said:

"Dr. Hershey's argument is a strong one, but it is not backed by facts. I protest from such a theory going out from this meeting. It will excite a great deal of comment, and if we are wrong it will do us no good."

The doctors refused to consider the paper in its original form and it was moved and seconded that Dr. Hershey be given a year in which to investigate the subject.

RAILWAY STATION AT ROCKTON BURNS

Sparks From a Passing Engine Responsible for Destruction of a St. Paul Road Depot.

Beloit, Wis., Sept. 5.—(Special)—The C. M. & St. P. R. R. freight depot at Rockton, Ill., was destroyed by fire at noon today. Sparks from a passing engine are responsible. Depot Agent Merrill worked like a Trojan and was almost exhausted. He saved freight, money and instruments. All trains were delayed. Building entirely destroyed. About $1,000 loss.

A council of the Knights of Columbus, a Catholic fraternity will be organized in this city on Sunday, Sept. 15. Big delegations are expected from Janesville and Rockford.

The bowlers of this city tackle Janesville's crack team at Leffingwell's alley tonight.

Green County Fair Opens

Monroe, Wis., September 5.—The Green county fair opened yesterday. The races have been filled and the first speed events will take place today, consisting of a 2:50 trot, a special trot and pace in the 2:25 class and a pony race. Friday will be Monroe day and all places of business in the city will be closed in the afternoon.

George S. Goessline, who has occupied the position of gardener at the State School for the Blind for several years has resigned and will go into business at Monticello, Wis.

CONSIDER A PEACE PROPOSITION OFFER MADE TO STEEL STRIKERS

Executive Board of the Amalgamated in Session Discussing the Settlement Proposed By Pres. Schwab—Men Returning to Work.

Pittsburg, Pa., September 5.—The executive board of the Amalgamated in session here this morning is for the purpose of considering the peace proposition submitted by Schwab yesterday at New York. It is understood that the Amalgamated people have 24 hours from yesterday in which to accept or reject the proposed settlement plan.

New York, September 5.—Samuel Gompers, when asked this morning in regard to the conference yesterday between the steel officials and the strike leaders, said:

"We met Mr. Schwab and the other representatives of the steel corporation in conference this afternoon. We discussed the steel strike. Whether any proposition was submitted to President Schwab, and as to what discussion took place, or whether any decision was reached or not, are matters regarding which we think that it would be of interest at this juncture both to the strikers and the United States steel corporation, and to the public in general to keep silent."

NEW MANUAL TRAINING EQUIPMENT; ADDS 32 WOOD-WORKING BENCHES

Board of Education Enlarging the Scope of That Department of High School Work.

The board of education has been considering for some time the plans made for enlarging the scope and possibilities of the Manual Training Department of the High school. Last spring two rooms in the basement were turned over for the use of this department, both of which will be devoted to the work of the freshman class. These rooms will be equipped with thirty-two modern wood-working benches fitted with Tole's rapid acting vices and a new tool room will be fitted up for the new tools that have been purchased for this class.

One room will be devoted to the wood working machinery, used principally by the second year, or Sophomore class. This is to be equipped with ten lathes, one band saw, one buzz saw, one planer and one trimmer, besides the accessories necessary to operate wood-working machinery. A tool-room will contain all of the modern tools necessary to operate the lathes.

In the machine shop where the juniors and seniors work in iron and steel, five forges and ten anvils will turn out smoke and noise enough to satisfy the most ardent blacksmith.

These forges have been fitted with all of the fullers, flatters, awages and cut-off tools necessary to good work. The old lathes have been sent to the Janesville Machine company to be put in shape for good service and a new iron lathe of the most complete and modern style with compound rest and cross feed, chucks, etc., has been purchased. This machine has been selected from the best makes found on exhibition in Chicago; after investigating the machinery used in the best manual training and technological schools, and can be pointed to with pride by all interested in the manual education of our youth.

The board of education authorized Mr. C. C. MacLean and Prof. George Brace to visit Chicago and purchase this machinery and tools, which when installed will place this department on a basis for doing work comparable with the best in this country.

Great credit is due the board of education and Supts. Buell and Mayne for their enthusiastic support and kindly advice which has always been unanimous and cordial and presages development and advancement along lines which will merit the praise and thanks of the pupils and parents.

Mrs. McKinley and the members of their party will be during their stay in the city.

The president remained quietly in the house during the evening, retiring at an early hour.

SHERIFF KNOCKED SENSELESS

Mysterious Assault Committed in Office at Appleton, Wis.

Appleton, Wis., September 5.—Louis Earl, sheriff of Outagamia county, was assaulted in his office yesterday afternoon about two o'clock and knocked senseless by a blow on the head. It is not known whether the assault was for revenge or robbery.

Just before the assault he had collected a judgment of $100 but had turned the money over before going to the office.

He has no knowledge of who struck him, having only unlocked the door and gone into the office. His injuries are not serious. His jewelry and a small sum of money in his pocket were untouched.

SHORT TALKS TO FARMERS

The first corn shredders placed on the market were termed man eaters for they frequently chewed off arms and hands of men who were engaged in feeding them. These machines have been greatly improved and it is practically impossible for a man to get hurt in one of them unless it is intentionally done. The 1901 husker comes out with all sorts of improvements. It will take care of the fodder about as fast as the teams can haul it to them. Many of them are equipped with self-feeders which removes the danger of getting a hand cut off by the snapping rolls. Some modern machines are so constructed that it is impossible for a man, standing on the feeding board, to reach far enough to get his hands in the snapping rolls. Some of them are also arranged to save all the corn that is shelled off in the process of husking, which is properly cleaned and sacked ready for the market or bin. Wind stackers are provided which take ample care of the shredded product.

Nearly every farmer knows that each corn plant is perfect within itself, having both male and female organs, the former being represented by the tassels and the latter by the silks on the cobs. Unless there is a union of these two there can be no grains on the cob. The pollen is contained in a little sack-like body, called an anther, which is largely supplied with dust-like particles known as pollen. When these develop to a certain point they burst and the pollen is scattered hither and thither. This falls on the silk fringe of the would-be ears, each silk of which is hollow and possessed of quite a sticky surface. The pollen adheres to one grain and in some way passes through the silk to its base where it comes in contact with the ovary and this union gives rise to a kernel of corn. Quantities of pollen are supplied, yet the pollination is accomplished by one grain, and as soon as completed the silk withers and dries up. A great deal of the corn was rendered infertile this year because the tassels were burned up by the heat and the pollen destroyed. Those that failed to be damaged were adequate to the demands.

A health journal says that tomatoes are good for a torpid liver, lettuce is soothing to the nerves, celery is a nerve tonic, onions also a nerve remedy, dandelions purify the blood, potatoes are fattening and so are beets, and asparagus is good in kidney ailments.

Every year some farmers fail to get a good stand of grass, and some fail almost every year. In other years a good stand is almost universal. There are many failures this year and there is a cause for it, as there always is. Don't give up now.

ing, but try again. Keep trying until a stand is obtained.

The drouth of 1894 killed many trees in various parts of the country and the severe winter of 1899 killed some more of them. I have noticed this season that some trees have prematurely shed their leaves and it may be that the drouth has been severe enough to damage them in some localities. A tree that is in good health has many chances to pull through, but not all of them do.

This year will be a very good year to determine what stock will not pay for wintering, and there may be plenty for which no one will have any use. Cows that will not pay should be culled out and disposed of in some manner. The feed will have to be husbanded at all corners and may necessitate a housecleaning of unprofitable stock. Some aged and useless stock may be looked at several times before concluding to let them go, as attachments are great and sometimes control us in making the selection.

One of the philosophic farmers of the drouth stricken country in the corn belt made a very pertinent remark recently when he said, "Corn is practically a failure, in most of the fields, but man does not live on corn alone." It might be added, "But by every product that proceedeth forth from the earth."

A man who knows a good deal more about the dairy business than he tells says to darken the windows of the cow barn and hang an old blanket, or piece of burlap over the upper half of the door which will brush off all the flies when the cows enter the barn. He says it works like a charm and makes milking a pleasure.

There seems to be enough feed in sight for the stock this winter. The situation seems to point to the fattening of fewer animals and wintering more. A large number will rough it through winter on whatever feed is at hand and with a little grain as possible. Such cattle as are fed will be fed shorter periods and the weights of animals marketed will be lighter than usual. Everything points to fewer fat steers than last year. Prices may range higher; I believe they will. Now is the time for the cattle owner to do some hard thinking about the future.

Five minutes' time and a little axle grease when putting the plow away will save half a day's time at the sand bank when it is to be used again, and perhaps an hour's time going to a neighbor to borrow one when the plow finally can't be made to work. Small things neglected often cause a great deal of trouble subsequently.—Wisconsin Farmer.

BADGER REUNION IN CALIFORNIA

A reunion of all Wisconsin settlers and visitors in Southern California was held at Long Beach, Cal., on August 22. The "Badger" association of Southern California includes all nations of Wisconsin whether waiting for the season or making their permanent residence in California. In speaking of the reunion the Long Beach Evening Tribune says: "There were Badgers from Los Angeles, Pasadena, Pomona, Ontario, San Bernardino, Redlands, Riverside, Santa Ana, Ventura, and from city, and town, and hamlet, and valley, and canyon in Southern California. There were old Badgers and baby Badgers, and middle aged Badgers, all intent on enjoying the day. They at once proceeded to the pavilion, overlooking the ocean waves. The very waving of the ocean seemed to hush and to blend in joyous harmony with the happy crowd."

Among those who registered from Janesville were Frank Strunk and Mrs. Frank Strunk, Mrs. J. McCulloch, Willard Powle, L. E. Miles, W. S. Smyre, Prudie C. Smyre and Mr. and Mrs. B. Campbell.

Some Notably Large Ones Are on Record—Sentiment Versus the Pocketbook.

The parson's fee is one of the most agitating questions the prospective bridegroom has to deal with, and he is often times obliged to consult some friend who has been through the trying ordeal.

He knows, of course, that $2 is all required by law, but somehow he feels it is worth more—a case of sentiment versus pocket book.

If he could tell the parson his financial standing, showing how really generous he was, it would simplify matters considerably. This he cannot do, so he gives what he can, trusting to the parson to understand that he would give more if he could afford it.

Wally $2 is what the law allows, some people pay a trifle more—$3, $4 and $5; as a rule they pay $5, which is as much as the average man can afford. Occasionally $8 or $10 is given, while fees of $25 and $50 are very rare.

The total average of marriage fees of the clergyman sum up about $500 a year—a neat little sum, by the way.

Next to the bridegroom the clergyman's wife is the most interested in the fee, for it goes into her pocket book, and the more generous it is the better for her. Occasionally a lucky one whose husband presides over a church with millionaire attendants is presented by him with a check for $100.

The largest wedding fee on record for the one paid to the Pope by the Duke d'Aosta for the privilege of marrying his niece.

At a diamond wedding in New York the clergyman received a check for $1,000.

No wonder the clergyman looks forward with a joyful anticipation to wedding fees, and many are the luxuries he would have to do without were it not for this money.

The two extremes in one clergyman's experience were a fee of $100 and a loan to the bridegroom of $10. Now and then the parson is bunched. After the ceremony has been performed and the couple have received their marriage certificate, the bridegroom finds he has left his money at home—or has some other excuse—promises to drop in in a day or two, and that is the last the clergyman hears of him. As he cannot unmarry the couple or take away the certificate, he congratulates them, gives them his blessing, and sends them away, even though he knows he will never receive a penny for his services.

The average minister is well paid at $10 or $20. Therefore the bridegroom must not feel that he will be misjudged if he does not give an extravagant fee, and it will be accepted if it is not more than the traditional bag of beans given as a fee to a New England pastor in early days. In Catholic churches the fee goes to the church and is counted as a special offering.

CARP DRIVE AWAY THE CANVASBACKS

Fish Eat Up Celery Roots, and This Destroys the Ducks' Feeding Grounds at Koshkonong.

Lake Koshkonong, fourteen miles north of this city, says a Janesville dispatch to the Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin, for years one of the most widely known lakes in the country on account of the fine canvasback duck shooting which may be enjoyed along its shores at certain seasons of the year, is rapidly losing its prestige. As a matter of course, not nearly so many ducks frequent the lake as in former years. Civilization, improved firearms and a largely increased number of hunters are responsible for some reduction of their numbers, but these are not the main causes of the failure of the shooting. In 1889-90, when W. D. Hoard, of Fort Atkinson, about six miles north of the lake, was governor of Wisconsin, he conceived the idea that German carp would be an ideal fish with which to stock Lake Koshkonong. These fish multiply more rapidly than any known species of the finny tribe and today Lake Koshkonong is one immense carp pond. It is to the fish's method of living that the end of the canvasback is in sight. The carp root up and devour all tender vegetable matter that grows on the bottom of the lake and the canvasbacks live principally on the roots of the wild celery plant, which gives their flesh the flavor for which it is celebrated.

Great schools of the fish work along the bottom of the lake, turning up the mud and devouring the celery roots, keeping the lake as rocky and dirty as a sinkhole and covering the surface with a scum that looks very much like soap grease.

Last fall thousands of canvasbacks came to Lake Koshkonong, but instead of resting for several weeks, as was their custom, they stayed a day or two and then left. Usually a flock of from 3,000 to 10,000 birds will settle over a feeding bed and stay there until they get fat, only moving on windy days and for a time each morning and evening.

Last fall it was a curious sight to watch them in their disappointment over loss of their feeding beds. A great flock would start diving for the celery roots at the bottom of the lake. Failing to find their usual food they would swim rapidly for some distance and then again begin diving. These tactics they kept up during the day, then just at sundown they would begin to fly, and after circling around the lake a couple of times, would make a bee line for the south and new feeding grounds.

On account of the marshy nature of the lake and on account of its size it would be impossible to clear it of carp. The approach of the hunting season has again brought this matter before those interested in shooting and they are watching with considerable anxiety to see whether the canvasbacks will this year desert their old haunt.

Every Care a Burden

There is failure of the strength to do and the power to endure; there is weakness "all over" that is persistent and constant.

The vital functions are impaired, food does not nourish, and the whole system is run down.

A medicine that strengthens the stomach, perfects digestion, invigorates and tones is needed.

What Hood's Sarsaparilla did for Mrs. L. B. Garland, Shady, Tenn., it has done for others. She took it when she was all run down—without appetite, losing flesh, and unable to do her work. It restored her appetite, increased her weight, and made her well and strong. This is her own unsolicited statement.

HUNT ROBBERS IN A CITY

Poses Give Up Search for Cotton Belt Bandits.

ALL MAY BE IN TEXARKANA.

Amount Taken from Express Safes Now Declared to Be at Least $50,000—Robbery Was Well Contrived by Those Who Executed the Job.

Texarkana, Ark., Sept. 5.—The six masked men who robbed the south-bound cotton belt passenger train four miles from here are thought to be in this city. It was at first thought the men were in the woods, and many posses were sent out to hunt them. The posses have returned here, having called the bloodhounds from the track. It has been learned that the robbers secured one bag of gold which required the combined efforts of two men to carry from the express car to the engine. The through safe was blown open with dynamite. It is believed the robbers are Texarkana men, or at least one man, the remainder being boys. The amount of the booty it is now said will reach nearly $50,000. Pursuit is now confined strictly to Texarkana. The train southbound from Texarkana had reached the Texas and Pacific crossing, four miles south of Texarkana, at 11:25 p. m. As it stopped to blow, six men boarded the train. Two of these were on the engine and compelled the engineer and fireman to go back and cut the mail and express cars from the train. When this had been done, the six men boarded the engine, left the fireman with the train, and the engineer was instructed to pull out south. The train was run to Eylau, a small siding, where a stop was made. While one man guarded the engine the five others went back to the express car, forced the doors, and blew open the safe. They took their time at the work, and when they had concluded, returned to the locomotive with two sacks heavy with booty. These they tossed on the engine. Turning to the engineer, one said: "We'll just shell road you here. You are not the only engineer in this crowd, and I guess we can run the machine a few miles without your assistance." The robbery was done by men more experienced in railroad robbery than in robbery. They knew the stops of the train and were prepared for the emergency thus presented. They were armed, but did not make unnecessary display of their weapons. All were masked and each wore a coat. The country where the holdup occurred is densely wooded.

CONVICTS FIGHT IN JAIL.

Jim Howard and Caleb Powers, guilty in Goebel Case, Quarrel. Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 5.—James Howard and ex-Secretary of State Caleb Powers, convicted as Goebel murder conspirators, quarreled in jail here. Howard threw a heavy inkstand at Powers, striking him in the head. Powers was knocked over and bled profusely. The only witness to the fight was ex-Adjutant General J. K. Dixon, who was in conference with the two men. Powers is too ill to be seen. Howard, on the advice of his attorneys, refused to talk. Howard's next trial begins here next Monday.

Crocker May Live in England.

New York, Sept. 5.—A London dispatch says: In the current issue of Week End a contributor gives an account of a conversation he recently had with Richard Crocker. "Mrs. Crocker tells me," says the correspondent, "that he is passionately fond of rural England and that some day he hopes to settle down in a little country house in one of our picturesque counties. I hope I am betraying no confidence when I remark that he is trying to prove himself fit for citizenship with us by an applied study of our manners and customs."

PRESS COMMENT.

Bayfield County Press, Rep.: Gov. La Follette ought to demand the resignation of Nils P. Haugen—if he would forward the work of tax reform—and in his place appoint a man who will do that which the people have a right to expect—entire devotion of his time to the most important question now before the taxpayers of the state. Give us tax reform, free from politics, and the people will rise up and call you "blessed."

Marquette Eagle, Rep.: The whereabouts of Nils P. Haugen on August 15th have been the subject of some comment. Mr. Haugen is the only appointee of the governor on the tax commission as at present organized. The law says in plain words that a member of that commission shall be engaged in no business whatever while holding the office. On August 15 there was an important hearing before the commission, but Mr. Haugen was not there. He was at Hudson attending to a petty law suit in which he had become interested as an attorney before his appointment. The rights of the people of the state whom he is supposed to represent on the tax commission were considered of less importance than his personal business matters. Moreover, he apparently held lightly his oath of office and defied the law which said that his place was with the commission on that day. This is the man who has debased the judicial character of his office in an unseemly attack upon the senior senator of this state and whose abusive attack is tacitly approved by Gov. La Follette, and the men who are supporting him. Does the governor approve also of Mr. Haugen's disregard of law? Apparently so.

Hudson Star-Times, Stalwart Rep.: La Follette overshot his opportunity and became instead of a level-headed governor of all the people a fanatical dictator, determined to force his own personal notions upon the state without any heed to the legislature whatsoever. This is what has brought on all the present discord in the republican ranks of Wisconsin, and has made a league in it imperative.

Weekly Madisonian, Dem.: If every deputy selected is as earnest in his devotion to the governor as is their chief, Overbeck, what a mighty force they will be when the caucuses are held. Has it ever occurred to the tax payers that these seventy-five dollar a month deputies are of more value as ward heelers than they are as snipe and duck guardians.

Whitewater Register, Rep.: Wisconsin is a pretty good state and is peopled with a pretty fair lot of folks. The standards of living and thinking and doing are up to a reasonable average. The ordinary observer does not see very much wickedness or wrong, doing as he perceives about the state. But this shows how much he misses. He is as blind as the average citizen who sits down to read a patent medicine almanac, or stops to listen to a gasoline vendor of cure-alls on the street corner. He comes to the test supposing himself to be a perfectly healthy man, but goes away with the pallor of death on his face. He has learned that he and all his neighbors are but walking museums, loaded with all the physical ills that flesh is heir to. And to this observer who thinks Wisconsin is all right, ought to listen to the cries of the "reformer" as they sound through the land. The need of "reform" is pressing us into the earth; we are burdened and victimized on every hand. We were happy till our misery was revealed to us; and now the only possible happiness before us is to enjoy our misery to the full limit, until it is again revealed to us that we are not miserable and that the only resource left us is to be happy again.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local application, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one cure, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When the tube is inflamed, it swells and shuts out the sound. When it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

LATEST FOREIGN NEWS.

Ecumenical Conference On. London, Sept. 5.—The ecumenical methodist conference opened in Wesley's chapel to-day with a good attendance. In the devotional exercises King Edward and President McKimley were prayed for. Bishop John C. Hartzell, missionary bishop of the Methodist Episcopal church in Africa, made the opening prayer and Bishop Galloway of Jackson, Miss., preached an eloquent sermon, setting forth the aims of Methodists throughout the world and emphasizing the value of the tenets of John Wesley. Communion followed. Among the subjects that will be considered are "Christianity and Modern Unbelief," "Methodist Literature and Journalism" and "Practical Methods of Dealing with the Liquor Traffic." A public meeting will be held, at which "the Moral Unity of the English-Speaking Peoples" will be the subject discussed.

France Is to Expel Turks. Paris, Sept. 5.—The correspondent of the Associated Press here learns that the French government has decided upon the first coercive measure against the sultan of Turkey. A decree has been drawn up, and will probably be signed tomorrow, expelling a number of Turkish agents whose mission has been to spy on the Young Turks in France. The list included several names well known in Parisian society. It is also learned that the sultan has telegraphed to Munir Bey recalling him to Constantinople. The Tempe says it is thought in diplomatic circles that the sultan will profit by the fortnight's respite accorded him by the czar's visit to France.

Wants the Law Changed. Swansea, Wales, Sept. 5.—The trades union congress today continued to debate the Taff Vale decision, the president cautioning the delegates to be careful of the language used in reference to the house of lords. In voting on the recommendations of the parliamentary committee the congress was unanimous in declaring that an appeal should be made to parliament to alter the law and that an authoritative decision should be sought as to whether peaceful picketing was illegal.

Nobel Fund Is $8,368,300. Stockholm, Sept. 5.—Legal formalities connected with the Nobel fund have been completed at last. The gross amount available for the purposes of the fund is 31,225,000 kroner ($8,368,300). Many deductions were made for legacy duties in England, France, Italy, Sweden and Russia. The scientific institutions and the Norwegian parliament are now in a position to award the first five annual prizes of 300,000 kroner ($80,400) each.

German Cruiser Wacht Lost. Berlin, Sept. 5.—The commander of the German fleet maneuvering in the Baltic telegraphed today from Samsnitz, Island of Rugen, that the third-class cruiser Wacht has been sunk off Arkona, after having been in collision with the battleship Sachsen. It is not known whether there was any loss of life.

Rich Cargo from the Orient. Victoria, B. C., Sept. 4.—The steamer Tosa Maru, which arrived last night brought one of the richest cargoes which has come from the orient. She had 3,500 tons, including 3,500 sacks of very rich concentrates shipped to Seattle by Leigh Hunt's Mining company at Gensan, Korea.

TROUBLES OF THEIR OWN.

Chairman Warden of the democratic state central committee, is being severely criticised for his attitude toward the Iowa democracy, which recently endorsed the Kansas City platform.

M. J. Regan of Madison, a prominent party leader, is out in an interview in which he says that Wisconsin democracy still favors Bryan and that while the gentleman may not be a candidate, there will be a prominent figure in the next campaign.

Mr. Regan regards the free silver wing of the party, all there is left of true democracy, and says that he expresses party sentiment.

The trouble with the democratic party is that the conservative and sensible element is not strong enough to control it. Bryan, with his fine spun theories, has hypnotized the masses and captured the organization and old time democracy is still in the throes of revolution.

The Milwaukee Journal is making heroic efforts to save the party from itself, and as a result is being ridiculed and maligned by the free silver press of the state.

The republican party may well take warning of democratic experience. The party was induced, against its better judgment, to crown a theorist with executive power a year ago. It discovered its error in time to put a check on some of his erratic movements. It remains to be seen whether the conservative element of the party is strong enough to redeem and control it, or whether, like democracy, the party is to be sacrificed to new idols.

With free silver democracy and populist republicanism rampant in the state, it will be worse than Kansas in its palmiest days. The republican league has a mission, the importance of which will be fully realized in time to save the party.

THE GOOD ROADS TRAIN.

If there is anything pertaining to the public good that the farm needs, as well as the town, it is good country roads. If there is any place where money and effort is squandered recklessly, it is on country roads and city streets.

There has been money enough wasted on the streets of Janesville during the past fifteen years to have built fifty miles of first-class pavement, and there has been enough farm labor invested in honest days work under the direction of town path masters, who, as a rule know no more about road building than they do about preaching, to have equipped the country with good roads if the labor had been intelligently directed.

These conditions are true not only of Janesville and Rock county, but of the country at large. Go where you will, you find the industrious farmer busy working out his poll tax, tearing up miles of good natural roads, and leaving them in a condition that incites profanity for months after his work is pronounced done.

Go into any city and you will find the tax payer complaining about the money wasted by some political street commissioner who is totally destitute of practical knowledge concerning his work.

Realizing the need of intelligent work the last congress appointed a commission and appropriated a small amount of money for experimental work.

The railroads were interested, and transportation was donated, and manufacturers of improved road machinery contributed the use of an equipment and a train was fitted out for an experimental tour. New Orleans was the objective point and a mile of low, marshy road in the outskirts of the city was selected. Nothing but the material at hand was to be used, which in this case was hard, sun baked clay. The city welcomed the commission and furnished mule teams and men and the road was converted into a boulevard in short order under the direction of men who thoroughly understood their work.

The train worked its way north, giving exhibitions in Missouri and Illinois cities, and is still in the field. It is heartily endorsed and the commissions is in great demand. Congress will be asked for a larger appropriation next winter and it will pay Wisconsin to invite the commission to visit the state and demonstrate what can be done in the way of building good roads and streets by men who have made the work a study.

THE PICKLE CONCERT.

The concert to be given at the opera house tomorrow night, should be patronized by every public spirited citizen. There is no expense attending, as all the talent is donated, and every dollar realized is for the benefit of the city.

To secure the canning factory it became necessary to raise something over $5,000. The committee having the matter in charge, after donating freely of time and money, are still $700 short. There is a moral obligation that should be recognized by every citizen. Spend a dollar or five dollars for concert tickets and help the committee to discharge this obligation.

The only motive back of the enterprise is the public good, the men who have given their time to it are public spirited, and they are entitled to every encouragement.

The concert itself will be well worth attending, but invest some money in it whether you go or not.

The republican league appears to be considered a good deal of a joke with the half breed press. It will be discovered before the final wind-up that "he who laughs last laughs best." There is no buffoonery about the organization.

Honors are easy. A young woman will attempt a voyage of the Niagara rapids in a barrel, while a foolhardy representative of the male sex is on a "cruising exhibition from New York to Boston in a bathing suit." Flying machines are not in it.

It has been discovered that the best place for a short courtship is on an ocean voyage. Sixty of the for hundred teachers who embarked from San Francisco for Honolulu the other day were married as soon as the vessel landed.

With the capture of Aguinaldo, the Filipino rebellion has ceased, and the "cruel war" that was a source of so much satisfactory discussion, by the anti-imperialists, is a thing of the past.

The national convention of postal clerks now in session in Milwaukee, may organize a union and demand an eight hour day. Civil service reform is a great institution.

RED HOT SHOT BY GROSVENOR

that IT CREATES FACTION and it has an effect that no other system has. It brings into hostility members of the same political party and during the primary election contests the bitterness of faction reigns. Criminalization and re criminalization, charges of unfitness for office, ring out upon the air, and the successful candidate finding himself nominated, also finds himself assailed by men of his own party, and faction runs so high that it produces the greatest possible discord and disorder and in close counties has been very often fatal to the ticket or parts of the ticket.

Rural Districts Will Suffer. But there is another thing; it leads to unfair distribution of the county offices and of all the offices. Now, you take a state like Ohio and nominate the governor in this way, and three or four of the great cities can combine and nominate anybody they see fit filling up the entire ticket in their own way. This is injurious in the fullest degree in the smaller arena of a county. THE POPULOUS TOWNSHIPS WILL COMBINE AND THE STRICTLY RURAL DISTRICTS WILL SUFFER. I have known an entire county ticket to cover not one-fourth of the geographical face of the county, and I feel absolutely sure that nobody will say that it has resulted in nominating better men or even as good men as the old system of conventions.

It has worked far-reaching demoralization. The outgrowth of activity in the primary exhausts the active workers of the county, and when the fight with the real enemy comes we find a great many men unwilling to take a hand and participate. Convention System is All Right. The system of convention nominations has always worked well in Ohio. The delegates may be chosen occasionally by corruption, but when they are together and acting as a congress they usually work out the best interest of the party. They nominate a sheriff here, and an auditor there, and so on, making a just and fair distribution of the nominations, and to a larger extent more impersonal than in the primary election system.

I DO NOT BELIEVE THAT THERE IS ANY SYSTEM OF NOMINATIONS THAT CAN BE MORE EFFECTIVE OF BAD POLITICS AND BAD RESULTS THAN THE PRIMARY ELECTION SYSTEM ON A LARGE SCALE.

IN THE CLOSE COUNTY IT IS FATAL TO POLITICAL SUCCESS, AND IN ALL THE COUNTIES IT IS A SYSTEM OF CORRUPTION AND DEMORALIZATION.

Yours truly,
(Signed) C. H. GROSVENOR.

EVANSVILLE DAY AT COUNTY FAIR; GREAT CROWD AND GOOD PROGRAM

Exhibits Are First Class in Every Respect--No Gambling Joint Allowed--Races Are Interesting.

Evansville, Wis., September 5.—Few fair associations can boast of a better class of exhibits than those seen on the Evansville Fair grounds this week. They come from within a radius of ten miles of the city and the sight seers can spend many profitable moments in the inspection of the various displays.

Excepting the cramped quarters everything is most satisfactory to the management and the people of Evansville can rest assured that this fair is but a fore-runner of what the directors will give next year.

Wednesday was a great day but today was a greater one, as was to be expected and one of the largest crowds ever seen in the county was assembled within the confines of the fair ground; so that a great crowd and a good program were the two features given to the visitors. The grand stand was crowded with the lovers of good racing and two very exciting events were pulled off this afternoon. Probably more interest was centered in the special half mile race which was confined to horses owned by residents of Evansville.

Will Campbell's horse, George Dewey, familiarly known to every resident of the city as he is seen every day hitched to the meat wagon delivering goods over town, captured the race in three straight heats. Following is the summary: Sauky Tauky, Jr., 3-2-2; Sauky Tauky, 2-3-3; George Dewey, 1-1-1; Billy R., 6-6-4; Jack, 5-4-6; Baby S., 4-5-5. Time 1:22, 1:18 1/4, 1:19 1/2.

In the free-for-all Sol Russell captured first money but was pushed so hard that the track record of 2:21 1/2 was lowered to 2:20 1/2.

Marve, 2-2-2; Solet L., 4-4-4; Johnny B., 3-3-3; Chestnut Girl, 5-5-drawn; Sol Russell, 1-1-1. Time, 2:21, 2:20 1/2, 2:20 1/2.

Notes of the Fair

The management is to be congratulated that there are no gambling joints on the grounds.

Charles J. Sloan of Janesville was one of the official judges, seen in the stand today.

This was known as Evansville day and all of the factories and business houses closed up enabling their employees to attend.

W. W. Gillies, the genial secretary, was willing to be kind and helpful wherever he was found while President W. E. Campbell was the busiest man on the ground.

The weather was ideal and a nice orderly crowd completed the day. Lots of money was spent and spent freely, and everybody seemed happy and contented.

A large crowd from here attended the Rock county fair at Evansville today.

HAVE YOU SEEN HER?

Mrs. Ethereal is daily proving to the most skeptical of Janesville, that she can do all that she claims. All she asks is to be given a trial and satisfaction is assured.

There are ladies of this city who do not care to have their names brought before the public, who claim wonderful results from only two treatments.

Mrs. Ethereal don't treat everything, but cures all she treats.

She removes wrinkles, superfluous hair, warts, moles, etc. by electrolysis and other scientific processes. She treats the scalp for dandruff and itching humors. Give her a trial today, as no cruetation is the chief of time. Hair dressing and manicuring parlors in connection. Parlor 224-226 Hayes Block. Wis. Phone 211. Office hours: 9 to 12 a.m., 1 to 6 p.m.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS TO OPEN SEPT. 16

SUP'T. BUELL HARD AT WORK
GETTING THINGS READY.

New Recitation Rooms in the High School Building—Some of the Changes in the Staff of Teachers—Students and Teachers After Pointers—An Auspicious Opening.

The high school and other schools of the city will begin the year's work on Monday morning, Sept. 16. Supt. Buell has been hard at work since his arrival in the city getting everything in readiness for the term's work. Two new recitation rooms are being arranged in the high school to accommodate the extra classes; the museum will be supplied with recitation seats which will make one comfortable class room; the other is on the upper floor, being one of the new rooms recently fitted up for school use.

The cooking and sewing department has been moved from the basement floor to the top story and will occupy the other three large rooms back of the stage. This will leave the five departments for the manual training department. The last department is undergoing considerable change. Sixteen new double benches are to be made in the department for the wood working rooms. Some new machinery will be added to the iron and lathe rooms and the work will be somewhat broadened in its scope. Several changes have been made in the high school teaching force. Miss Lina Johns of the university of Wisconsin will have the work laid down by Mr. Dudley. Miss Johns taught in the science department of the Merrill high school for six years before taking the degree at the university. Miss Othello Lange of Bloomington, Illinois, who has taught in the Mineral Point high school for three years will teach in the English department here.

Mr. M. Losey of the Rockford Business college takes the place made vacant by the resignation of Mr. Egan. He has been for many years an instructor and one of the officers in the Rockford school and comes well prepared to teach in the same system of shorthand and business methods in vogue in our business course here.

Mr. William Norris of Palmyra, Wis., takes the place made vacant by the withdrawal of Prof. Cance and Mr. Vanhorn of the university of Wisconsin takes up the work of Greek and assistant in Latin in the classical department.

Supt. Buell has not as yet arranged the schedule of classes for this term, but every thing will be in readiness for work at the opening of school September 16. Students are at the superintendent's office daily getting their work laid out for the year. Some of the graduates come to get their standing to go to higher institutions of learning and the teachers come to discuss their work for the coming term.

The general teachers' meeting will be held in the science recitation room at four o'clock on Saturday preceding the opening of the school and examinations will be held on Thursday and Friday for such of the teachers as have to write and such pupils as have been permitted to write to make up their grade work.

Everything points to an auspicious opening of the school year. Under the leadership of Supt. Buell and his able corps of assistants the schools must surely advance in facility for and efficiency in the work of education.

ENTIRE STORE REMODELED

Maynard Shoe Company Now Have a Model Shoe Store

Model in every respect is the Maynard shoe company store on the bridge. Workmen during the past two weeks have been remodeling the Maynard shoe establishment from one end to the other and from ceiling to floor. The entire interior has been cleaned and painted a hand-some light green with blue tint. New paper also graces the walls. In the center of the store rugs and carpeting have been placed as well as a set of costly oak chairs. A novelty has also been introduced by the addition of a toilet room and a reception corner. A spacious writing desk is at the disposal of all. Easy chairs are there for the weary. In fact Mr. Maynard has neglected nothing in the way of improvements that now makes the Maynard shoe store the model one of the Bower City.

CANNING FACTORY IS IN FULL BLAST

Seventy-Five Thousand Cans of Corn Put Up is the Record of Yesterday's Work.

The canning factory is now running full blast. Corn is being brought in by farmers from the surrounding country and is also being shipped in in car load lots. Seventy-five thousand cans of corn is a pretty good record for the second day after the factory has started up and before it had really been rebuilt after being knocked down. This number will be increased daily until the full capacity of the factory is reached. The factory is a busy place just at present. The employees say that P. Hohenadel, Jr., is the busiest man about the place and that he neither eats, sleeps nor rests and is on the go from early in the morning until late at night.

The pickle department is in full blast and the "kroust" department will start up next week. A large quantity of cabbage will be shipped here from other points as the output around here is not nearly up to the demand.

Next year if they have good luck there will be sufficient acreage of truck about here to supply all of the departments of the works without having to ship in from outside points.

The remains of the late Mrs. Bruns of Kansas City did not arrive here until after four o'clock instead of at 12:55 as was expected. They were taken to the chapel at Oak Hill cemetery where brief funeral services were held by the Rev. J. T. Henderson. The pall bearers were J. H. Jones, O. P. Brunson, C. B. Conrad and A. H. Titt.

MISS EASTWICK'S MIND AWRY.

Brother of the $500,000 Forger Talks of Her Condition.

New York, Sept. 5.—E. P. Eastwick, Jr., president of the Eastwick Engineering company of this city, in an interview explaining the conditions of his sister, Miss Maria Josephine Eastwick, now under arrest in London on a charge of forgery involving $500,000, said: "My sister suffered from typhoid fever about four years ago, and while at no time was her life in danger, her illness was a protracted one, with peculiar effect on her mental powers. As soon as she was able to be out she showed an abnormal desire for outdoor exercise, especially horseback riding and driving. Always a good horse-woman, she was encouraged in the hope that the recreation would benefit her, but she carried it to an extreme that finally she had to be restrained. She was induced to enter a sanitarium near Philadelphia, but after a stay of several months she showed little improvement and she was removed to another retreat in Connecticut, where one of the most eminent specialists of the country could watch her. When she was released from there we were assured that though she would continue to have vagaries which might annoy us, she was harmless. Soon after that my father took her to Europe, and has been with her almost constantly."

See Searchlights 70 Miles.

New York, Sept. 5.—Incoming steamers of the New York line report seeing occasional searchlights in the sky of the searchlights of the war vessels guarding the Boer prisoners of war, more than forty miles from land, while steamers of the West Indies line report seeing these reflections in the sky more than seventy miles south of Bermuda, says the St. George (Bermuda) correspondent of the Herald. It has been suggested that it would be useful to ships passing the Bermudas to know this. Besides, the question has been broached, would not the principal lighthouses of the world be of more utility if they had attachments of powerful searchlights, to be thrown about on the sky seaward? In the case of shipwreck these powerful beams might prove of great value.

Long Asks Forsyth to Explain.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 5.—Capt. James M. Forsyth, U. S. N., has received a letter from Secretary Long requesting an explanation of his alleged interview upon the Sampson-Schley controversy, which was accredited to him by a Kansas City newspaper. The interview quotes Capt. Forsyth as saying the trouble in naval circles is due to the fact that Admiral Sampson was promoted over the heads of seventeen capable officers who were his seniors in rank. Capt. Forsyth admitted having received a letter from the navy department, but declined to speak further for publication.

SEVERE BLOW TO STRIKERS.

Big Pittsburg Plant Reopens and McKeesport Will Follow.

Pittsburg, Sept. 4.—The strike at the Pennsylvania Tube plant in this city is practically broken.

This morning 150 of the strikers went to work in the plant and Supt. James R. McMurt says the plant will be running full in a few days.

The rest of the strikers, about 600, will meet this afternoon to decide whether they will return to work or not. It is thought they will decide to return.

Everything is quiet about the plant. The men are busily engaged in getting the plant into running order, and every person seems to think that the strike at the plant is over.

Damier Plant Reopens.

Preparations have been completed for the starting up of the Damier tinplate plant at McKeesport, and the resumption will probably take place late this afternoon or tonight.

The start will be made with a full force of deputy sheriffs on guard, the American Tinplate company having served notice on Sheriff McKinley of this, Allegheny, county that violence would be used.

The introduction of the strong arm of the law into the steel strike will, it is believed, undoubtedly bring about a crisis in the situation. In some quarters, it is thought it may lead to an early settlement of the present labor troubles, and in others that the presence of the sheriff's forces may result in a conflict.

The request for protection was made by Supt. Lauck, and Sheriff McKinley at once made arrangements for dispatching a large number of deputies to the scene. This will be done this afternoon.

Will Keep Them Quiet.

President Shaffer of the Amalgamated association said he knew last week that the request would be made for protection.

"If our men keep away from the mills, which I have no doubt they will," said he, "they can put all the deputies they want there."

President Shaffer will be on hand, or have a trusted assistant at the plant, to see that no violence is done to strike breakers and that his men make no demonstration.

This morning 400 men went to work in the National tube works. There was a crowd about the entrance to the plant, but the strikers failed to make good their threat to prevent the men returning and there was no demonstration. The men who went back today were threaders, machinists, carpenters, and molders.

The furnaces have not been put in operation, but the machinery is running and the men are finishing left over stock for small, short-time orders. The management said the different departments will be started as fast as the men report for work.

GREAT STRIKE IMPENDS.

Stock Yards Butchers and Meat Cutters Ask an Advance.

Chicago, Sept. 4.—The big packing firms are indifferent, or feign indifference, to the demands of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen's association, which has demanded an increase of 10 per cent in pay. J. Ogden Armour said that he "knew nothing about the matter, and had nothing whatever to say about it."

He suggested that somebody at the stock yards might know something regarding the demand, if there had been any demand. As for himself, he was in dense ignorance as to whether a demand had been made, or whether any conference had taken place between the labor leaders and himself. Charles W. Comes, the head man at Armour's office, repeated Mr. Armour's message and professed a like lack of knowledge.

At the office of Swift & Co., in the Gaff building, La Salle and Quincy streets, a similar statement was given out. Henry Veeder, attorney for the firm, said he had heard nothing about any contemplated strike.

The Demand Made.

Nevertheless, President Michael Donnelly of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters' union is authority for the statement that an increase of 10 per cent has been asked. Mr. Donnelly says that the time set for reply expired last Saturday night, and that no further action has been taken, except to open negotiations for hiring a large hall at Halsted and Thirty-eighth streets, to be used as a headquarters for the meat workers.

From other quarters it is stated that the attitude of the packers in ignoring the requests of the men has incited the anger of the workmen, and that unless a change is manifested within a few days one of the greatest strikes in history will be called.

Request and Not Ultimatum.

Mr. Donnelly is not as radical as this. He says he hopes to secure a reply from the packers. He says the request for an increase was not in the nature of an ultimatum or defiance. He will not say whether he thinks a strike probable or not.

There are 3,000 skilled workmen in the packing plants of Chicago, and 17,000 throughout the country. Should they go out, hundreds of thousands of unskilled laborers would be thrown out of employment.

The wages of the skilled men now range from 17 1/2 to 45 cents an hour.

Most of them receive from 25 to 35 cents.

Should Mr. Donnelly fail to bring about a settlement, he probably will summon the national executive board of the union for a conference, although he has already been empowered to call a general strike if he thinks necessary.

Demand by Upholsterers.

New York, Sept. 4.—The Upholsterers' union of this city has made a demand for the eight-hour work day, to go into effect today. Strikes are to be ordered, it is said, wherever the demand is refused. The union has 2,000 members in Greater New York, and their demand has been endorsed by the Central Federated union.

Striking Crew in Irons.

New York, Sept. 5.—The liner Southwark of the International Navigation company left its pier at the foot of Dey street shortly before 7 o'clock last night, though scheduled to sail at noon, with forty-six of its crew in irons, as many more refusing to work, and Inspector Gross aboard with fifty-five police reserves to take a hand in any possible violence that might occur before the ship anchored in Gravesend Bay, where a final effort was made to adjust matters. The Southwark, carrying seventy cabin passengers, 240 steerage passengers, and a crew of 200, was on the point of leaving its pier when the crew of firemen, twenty-four in all, refused to go to their posts.

Glass Workers Strike.

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 4.—Thirty art glass workers, members of union No. 9, and including all the skilled men in this line in Cincinnati, struck today because their demand of 25 cents an hour for glaziers and 30 cents an hour for cutters was refused. They also demand only one apprentice to every eight workmen.

Stranded Schooner Saved.

Mobile, Ala., Sept. 4.—The three-masted schooner Asa T. Stowell, which has been aground since the storm of Aug. 15 on Big Island flats, between Mobile and Daphne, on the eastern shore, was floated last night and towed to the city this morning. Little damage was sustained by the ship.

Woman Mysteriously Slain.

Kittery, Mo., Sept. 4.—The body of Sarah Waldron, 30 years old, was found today near the old fort at City Point. The woman apparently had been strangled to death and there were indications that the body had been dragged to the spot where it lay.

Balloon caught fire at Ferris Wheel Park, Chicago; three women hurt in panic.

Fortrays John the Baptist.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 5.—A notable theatrical performance was the production at the Central theater for the first time on any stage of a Biblical drama by Edward Elmer, entitled "A Voice from the Wilderness." In which John the Baptist is the leading character. The action of the play takes place in Judea just before the advent of Christ. John and Herodias, the consort of Herod, were effectively impersonated by Robert Downing and Annette Marshall. The play scored a success.

Bank in Nebraska Closes.

Broken Bow, Neb., Sept. 5.—The Bank of Custer county has closed its doors on an order from Secretary Royce of the state banking board. In its last statement the bank showed resources of $34,024, of which $63,266 were loans and discounts. The deposits subject to check and demand certificates aggregate nearly $60,000. F. C. Warrall of Kansas City is president; A. J. Robertson, also of Kansas City, vice-president, and J. A. Harris of this place, cashier. An examiner will be put in charge today.

Grover Cleveland to Speak.

New York, Sept. 4.—Former President Grover Cleveland is to be the chief orator today at the opening of "Old Home" week at Norwich, Conn. He was invited to participate because his grandfather, William Cleveland, was an old resident of Norwich Town, and made clocks there.

St. Louis City Pastor Called.

St. Louis City, Mo., Sept. 4.—Rev. Robert Bagnall of the First Methodist Episcopal church has accepted a call to the pastorate of Metropolitan temple, New York.

THE OBITUARY RECORD.

Ex-Congressman Wallace.

New York, Sept. 4.—Former Congressman William C. Wallace of Brooklyn is dead. Mr. Wallace represented the Third district of Brooklyn for one term and was at one time prominent in Republican politics in Brooklyn.

Samuel Howland Robbins.

New York, Sept. 4.—Samuel Howland Robbins, ex-fire commissioner, died at the Presbyterian hospital this morning. He had been in the hospital for some time suffering from a complication of diseases.

Fear Lynching at Mattson.

Mattson, Ill., Sept. 5.—John W. Webb of Anderson, Ind., was committed to the county jail charged with assaulting Mrs. Wade Fuller of this city. Webb is alleged to have attacked the woman on the main thoroughfare under an electric light and dragged her a block and a half to a railroad track. He then escaped but was apprehended later. He was identified by Mrs. Fuller and a female companion. Precautions to prevent lynching were taken by the authorities.

One Shot; Other Stabbed.

Muncie, Ind., Sept. 5.—There was a fierce riot at Daleville last night. William Leonard of Muncie and Sims Steers of Daleville were mortally wounded. Steers was attacked by Leonard with a butcher knife, which was plunged into his back repeatedly. Leonard was shot in turn by Steers and Sheriff Paschal in effecting his capture. Both men will die.

Cured of Chronic Diarrhoea After Thirty Years of Suffering.

"I suffered for thirty years with diarrhoea and thought I was past being cured," says John S. Holloway, of French Camp, Miss. "I had spent so much time and money and suffered so much that I had given up all hopes of recovery. I was so feeble from the effects of the diarrhoea that I could do no kind of labor, could not even travel, but by accident I was permitted to find a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and after taking several bottles I am entirely cured of that trouble. I am so pleased with the result that I am anxious that it be in reach of all who suffer as I have." For sale by King's pharmacy and People's Drug Co.

Battle-Ship to Be Altered.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 5.—The United States battle ship Indiana sailed from League Island navy yard today for New York. She will remain at the navy yard there about a month undergoing general overhauling. After that the big battleship will be used as a training ship. On her first voyage it is expected that she will carry several hundred landsmen, who will be taught work that will make them able-bodied seamen.

Wild Man in the Woods.

Mound City, Ill., Sept. 5.—A wild man has been discovered in the woods near this city, between here and Beechwood. He has been seen several times in the past three days by several persons, yet his identity has not been established. He has been described as an extraordinarily large man, partly clad. It is said he has outrun several men on horseback. The authorities have not yet taken action to find him.

Miss Theresa Leary, of 56 North Bluff street, who has been spending the past two weeks with Milwaukee relatives, came home last evening.

THE DREAM OF MOTHERHOOD COMES TRUE WHEN DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION IS USED.

Mrs. Axel Kjer, of Gordonville, Cape Girardeau Co., Mo., writes: "When I look at my little boy I feel it my duty to write you. Perhaps some one will see my testimony and be led to use your 'Favorite Prescription' and be blessed in the same way. I took nine bottles and to my surprise it carried me through and gave me as fine a little boy as ever was. Weighed ten and one-half pounds. He is now five months old, has never been sick a day, and is so strong that every body who sees him wonders at him. He is so playful and holds himself up so well."

RAIL ROAD TIME TABLE

THE WEST TRANSFORMED.

We are cultured to the limit in this famous western land;
Christianity upon us has a clench,
And refinement in our actions always plays a winning hand;
We are getting there, dead certain, inch by inch.
As an ornament the pistol is completely out of date.
Very rarely do we have a subterranean;
We are up with the procession, and we mean to hold our gait;
It no longer is the wild and woolly west.
We are short of desperadoes, scarcely ever see a tough.
With a yearning craze for shooting up the town,
And the tenderfoot from Jersey when he tries to run a bluff.
Undergoes a rather hasty calling down.
We are drinking better liquor than we did in days of yore.
And we go about more fashionably dressed;
The advancing wave of progress quenched our burning thirst for gore;
It no longer is the wild and woolly west.
Not a Christian man among us wears his breeches in his boots,
And the old wool shirt is but a memory now,
And we look with disapproval on the tenderfoot galoots.
Who are sporting big sombreros on the brow.
We are seen at church on Sunday ere the trout begin to bite.
With a holy flame alight in every breast,
And we're always in our couches at the stroke of 12 at night;
It no longer is the wild and woolly west.
And our ladies, heaven bless 'em, are so modest, nice and sweet
You would think them truant angels from the skies;
Never see them dash a-straddle on their bronchos through the street,
Making hoarse displays for staring eyes.
Not a slangy word or sentence ever ripples from their lips,
For a high old time they never go in quest;
Not a gun is ever peeping from the pocket on their hips;
It no longer is the wild and woolly west.
Oh, you bet your filthy lucre, we're refined to beat the band;
We have culture to distribute to the birds,
And the brand of fresh morality we always keep on hand.
Couldn't be described in common rhyme words,
We in every moral attribute are strictly reformed,
And that same's no pious, visionary jest,
And we love the rugged country into which we've come to stay;
It no longer is the wild and woolly west.

Another Echo of the Seaside.
"I never saw a girl so mad in all my life as Myrtle Bigler was last night."
"What was the trouble?"
"Why, she had on that lovely new bathing suit that she has specially laundered, you know, and was walking on the pier when she made a misstep and fell in."
"Was the water deep?"
"Deep enough."
"Deep enough for what?"
"Why, to ruin her suit forever!"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

SPARKS FROM THE DIAMOND.

Bald Archie Stimmel is posing as Old Unlucky now. He loses all his games by one run.
Joe Dolan's third base play was excellent in both games. He is also beginning to hit the ball much better than in the early part of the season.
Billy Fox is back in uniform for the Reds. He celebrated his return to the game by two errors.
Skopec is pitching winning ball in the Southern league. He held the Selma team to three hits yesterday.
W. H. Watkins has a fine ball park on his hands at Indianapolis—and no league to play in. A horse on Watty.

Sam Crawford has now made fifteen home runs. He will hardly equal the twenty-five made by Buck Freeman three years ago.
They have pretty good amateur clubs in Mississippi. At least, the way the Chickasaws of Memphis ate up Fred Pfeffer's team looked that way.

Jack Doyle is certainly all in. He made but one hit in the two games yesterday, and three costly errors. His batting has now slumped to about .225.

The Philadelphia National League players, it is said, act in a dull and sleepy fashion these days. Probably dreaming about those American league salaries of 1902.

Heine Peltz got into about seventeen games at second base, and played so well that he now leads all the second sackers. He had all kinds of chances too, and shirked nothing. Ahearn, the young catcher on trial with the Brooklyn team impressed Ned Hanlon favorably in the first game, and may be given a chance to do some of the heavy work.

New York fans are a great deal sorer over their ball club than are the West Siders of Chicago. The Manhattanites were dumped from such lofty heights that the fall broke their hearts.

New York critics keep right on howling about the bad base running of the Manhattan team—and the New York players keep right on making the worst exhibitions imaginable upon the lines.

Dave Fultz played great ball in the afternoon game. In the morning he muffed a fly in the most ludicrous fashion—a popup—under which he tried to settle in a graceful and lady-killer fashion.

Truck Eagen, who tried to shine with Pittsburgh and failed, got up a petition to the California league managers, asking them not to import any more eastern players to crowd California men out of their jobs. The ensuing laugh was all on Eagan.

Morris Steelman, the young catcher of the Athletics, was closely watched by a large crowd of richly dressed gentlemen with dark hair and aquiline features. When Patterson had two strikes on him during his third time up, one of these gentlemen leaned far over the box and cried beseechingly: "Gompromise mit him, Morris, gompromise mit him."

My heart and hand another claimed His plea had come too late.

Dyspepsia Cure

Digests
what you
Eat

When the stomach is diseased all the other organs suffer, hence fatal diseases of the heart, liver, lungs and kidneys are often the result of improper digestion. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure contains all the natural digestive fluids and by digesting what you eat, it cures the indigestion without aid from the stomach, allowing it to rest and regain its healthy condition and permitting you to eat all the good food you want.

"My rest is often disturbed at night by irregular heart action which I believe is on account of my stomach being overloaded with undigested food. I keep a bottle of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure nearby and a small dose always gives me instant relief." Ed. Thomas, Leitchfield, Ky.
